1ſt Battalion of Royals, ——— Hamilton, from the Donegal Militia, to be Enſign.

The humble Addreſs of the Right Honorable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, preſented to His Majeſty on Wedneſday May 21, 1800.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty's Throne, to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majeſty and to our Country on your Majeſty's happy Preſervation from ſo great a Danger.

Attached to your Majeſty by every Sentiment which can moſt endear a Sovereign to His People, by the long Experience of your Majeſty's paternal Affection towards us; by the Senſe of all the Benefits which we derive from your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government; and by our Veneration for the diſtinguiſhed Virtues which adorn your Majeſty's Character, and which are always moſt eminently diſplayed in the Hour of Trial; we acknowledge with all Humility and Gratitude the merciful Interpoſition of that Providence which has been ſo ſignally manifeſted on this Occaſion; and we make it our earneſt Prayer to Almighty God, that He will long preſerve to us the ſame Bleſſings, and that He will continue to watch over and to protect a Life ſo juſtly dear to us.

His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Anſwer.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Receive with increaſed Satisfaction every freſh Teſtimony of that invariable Attachment, of which your Conduct has afforded Me ſo many Proofs. The ſteady Loyalty and Affection of My People animate all My Endeavours for their Welfare; and I am confident, that I can make no more acceptable Return for that Protection which has been vouchſafed to Me and to My Family, than by perſevering in My unremitting Solicitude for the Happineſs of thoſe, whoſe Intereſts Providence has committed to My Charge.

St. James's, May 21, 1800.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majeſty, (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting,) with the following Addreſs, which was read by Sir John William Roſe, the Recorder.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council aſſembled, humbly preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late wicked and atrocious Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

The more we reflect on the incalculable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Auſpicious Reign, and on the reiterated Proofs of your Majeſty's unremitted Solicitude for the beſt Intereſts of your Subjects, with the more Horror do we recoil from, with the more Indignation and Aſtoniſhment do we contemplate the Enormity of this Diabolical Attack on a Sovereign, whoſe whole Life has been an uninterrupted Series of the moſt affectionate and diffuſive Benevolence to his People.

We renew to your moſt gracious Majeſty our Aſſurances of our Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our zealous and faithful Attachment to our moſt excellent Conſtitution, and of our Readineſs to guard and defend with our Lives your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, both againſt the audacious Attempts of foreign Enemies, and the ſecret Machinations of domeſtic Treaſon.

Signed by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for your Affectionate Congratulations on My Providential Deliverance from the Attack which was lately made upon My Life.

This freſh Proof of the uniform Attachment of My faithful City of London to My Perſon and Government, and the warm Expreſſions of your Zeal for the Defence of Our Excellent Conſtitution againſt the Attempts either of its foreign or domeſtic Enemies, afford Me the higheſt Satisfaction.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honor to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

After which His Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honor of Knighthood on William Leighton, Eſq; Alderman.

St. James's, May 23d, 1800.

THIS Day his Grace the Duke of Portland, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Oxford, the Reverend Doctor Marlow, Vice-Chancellor; Mr. Tench and Mr. Wood, Proctors; Doctor Wills, Warden of Wadham; Doctor Landon, Provoſt of Worceſter; Doctor Chapman, Preſident of Trinity; Doctor Hughes, Fellow of Jeſus; Doctor Wall, Lord Lichfield's Chemical Profeſſor; Doctor Bourne, Reader in Chemiſtry; Doctor Schoen, Fellow of Saint John's; Doctor Blackſtone, Vinerian Profeſſor of the Laws of England; the Reverends Mr. Halliwell, Mr. Marſh, Mr. Goodenough, and Mr. Swayne, Regent Maſters; being the Delegates appointed by the Univerſity, to attend on this occaſion, honored by the Preſence of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, in his Academical Habit, and accompanied by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and his Grace the Archbiſhop of York, the Marquis of Bute, the Earls of Kinnoull, Harcourt, Radnor, Liverpool, Beſborough, and Darnley; the Viſcount Grimſton, the Biſhops of Lichfield, Saliſbury, Bangor, Carliſle, Exeter and Oxford, the Lords Grenville, One of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, Willoughby de Brooke, Holland, Rivers, and Amherſt, the Right Honourable William Windham, Secretary at War, Sir William Dolben, Bart., and Francis Page, Eſquire, Members for the Univerſity and ſeveral other Noblemen and Gentlemen, who were educated at the Univerſity, waited upon the King to preſent the following Addreſs of Congratulation upon his Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the Danger to which his Royal Perſon has lately been expoſed.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford, beg leave to approach your Throne, and with the profoundeſt Sentiments of Duty and Affection to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on Account of your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the imminent Danger to which your ſacred Perſon has lately been expoſed. It is an Occaſion which not only calls forth our Congratulations to your Majeſty, but demands our devouteſt Thanks to the Almighty for the Mercy vouchſafed to us, your People, by the Preſervation of your Majeſty from the horrid and atrocious Attempt of the Aſſaſſin; and we fervently pray that the ſame good Providence which hath ſhielded your Majeſty in this Danger, will ſtill preſerve a Life ſo important to the Conſtitution and invaluable to your Subjects, and will long continue to them the ineſtimable Bleſſing of your mild and paternal Government.

Given at our Houſe of Convocation this twenty-firſt Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

To which His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for your Affectionate Congratulations on the merciful Deliverance which the Divine Providence has ſo lately vouchſafed to Me.

This additional Teſtimony of your invariable Attachment to My Perſon and Government, and your exemplary Endeavours for the Advancement of ſound Learning and Our Holy Religion, afford Me the higheſt Satisfaction, and ſecure to the Univerſity of Oxford My conſtant Favour and Protection.

St. James's, May 21, 1800.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ATTACHED by Sentiments of the ſtrongeſt Affection to your Majeſty, and feeling the Importance of your Safety to the Britiſh Empire, we are impatient to expreſs our Abhorrence of the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt againſt the ſacred Perſon and Life of your Majeſty.

That deſperate and horrid Attempt would cauſe indeed a moſt gloomy Reflection if our Joy on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape did not inſtantly ariſe in the ſame extenſive Proportion; and while we contemplate, with humble Gratitude, the ſignal Interpoſition of Providence in the happy Preſervation of your Majeſty, our Aſtoniſhment at the Attempt is too much excited to be able to expreſs, in Terms of proper Energy, our Indignation toward the miſerable Author of the intended Calamity.

Being truly ſenſible of the great Benefits to all your Subjects derived from your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, we embrace this Opportunity of renewing our Aſſurances of Zeal, Affection, and Loyalty; and of addreſſing our Prayers to the Almighty, that your Majeſty may long live to continue to your People thoſe Bleſſings, which, from your paternal Care and Attention, they have hitherto conſtantly enjoyed.

[Preſented by Lord Sheffield and Mr. Bragge.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

PERMIT, Moſt Gracious Sovereign, the Maſter Wardens and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers, of the City of Briſtol, to approach your Majeſty, animated with the ſincereſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment, to offer up at your Throne their heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the late daring and atrocious Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Diſtinguiſhed above all Nations for the Happineſs and Security we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we obſerve, with the deepeſt Concern, an Attempt which, we ſhudder to reflect, might have deprived the Britiſh Empire of a beloved Monarch, and Europe of its brighteſt Ornament.

But whilſt we look back with Horror on the Danger to which our revered Sovereign has been expoſed, our Gratitude riſes to that Almighty Being who has again ſhielded and defended him with his over-ruling Power.

May a Life thus providentially protected, a Life ſo important to our Welfare, be long preſerved; may your Majeſty derive, from the affectionate Zeal of all your Subjects, every Degree of earthly Happineſs and Security; and may your faithful People long continue to enjoy the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign.

[Preſented by Mr Bragge and Lord Sheffield.]

The Ninth Council of Richard Cox, Eſquire, Mayor of the ſaid City, held in the Council Chamber of the ſaid City, Wedneſday, (that is to ſay) the Twenty-firſt Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of our Sovereign Lord, George the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth, and in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council aſſembled, beg leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attack of an Aſſaſſin.

We moſt humbly acknowledge the Gratitude we owe to that Almighty Power which has more than once interpoſed, to preſerve a Life ineſtimably dear to all your Majeſty's Subjects, and we devoutly implore a Continuance of Safety and Protection to your Royal Perſon, on which the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms ſo eſſentially depends.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council aſſembled, thus humbly preſent to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Deliverance of your ſacred Perſon from the great Peril of Aſſaſſination, an Event of moſt auſpicious Moment to theſe Kingdoms.

Whilſt we earneſtly lament this audacious Spirit of human Depravity, we fail not to abide in the ſtedfaſt Hope of Divine Protection. May the Continuance of that Influence give ſafety to your Royal Perſon, aſſuage the Malevolence of Faction, and fruſtrate the impious Doctrines of deluded Reaſon.

So ſhall the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the conſtant Zeal of your gracious Exertions, remain the pureſt Bleſſings of your faithful People, and as ſuch be tranſmitted to Poſterity by the joyful earts of united Kingdoms, in grateful Remembrance of pious Example, and fatherly Affection.

Given under our Common Seal the Twentieth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by Earl Camden, Recorder, Lord John Thynne, and the Maſter of the Rolls, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the City of Bath.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of your antient and loyal City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled, humbly beg leave to offer our moſt reſpectful and cordial Congratulation to your Majeſty, on the providential Eſcape from the imminent Danger to which your ſacred Perſon has been expoſed by the horrid Attempt of a daring and deſperate Aſſaſſin; our Abhorrence of ſuch an Act can only be equalled by our Admiration of that Majeſtic Compoſure which in the Moment of Peril exhibited to your Subjects a truly Royal Example of Chriſtian Heroiſm. The Bleſſings which the People of theſe Realms have experienced under your Majeſty's paternal Care for a Period of near Forty Years, excite in our Hearts the utmoſt Gratitude to the Almighty Ruler of the Univerſe, for the Preſervation of a Life ſo truly dear to this Nation, and ſo intereſting to the World in general, and they Demand our fervent Prayers for its Continuance.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, this Nineteenth Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

[Preſented by Charles Fanſhawe, Eſquire, Recorder to the City of Exeter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chicheſter, impreſſed with a due Senſe of the many and great Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and feeling ourſelves deeply intereſted in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, humbly approach the Throne with our moſt ſincere and unfeigned Congratulations on the Providential Deliverance manifeſted in the Failure of the late wicked and treaſonable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Perſon.

With great Pleaſure we embrace this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty of our affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and that we will never ceaſe ſupplicating the Supreme Being to grant to your Majeſty a long and happy Reign.

In teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be affixed, the Nineteenth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common-Council aſſembled, take the earlieſt Opportunity of expreſſing our moſt heartfelt Anxiety at the Danger which has ſo nearly approached your ſacred Perſon, and our Abhorrence of that atrocious Act, by which your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life has lately been aſſailed; and we return our moſt grateful Thanks to Divine Providence for having again vouchſafed to interpoſe His moſt gracious Protection for the Preſervation of that Life, on the Continuance of which we are fully ſenſible the Proſperity and Welfare of the Britiſh Empire at this Time greatly depends. Our moſt hearty Prayer is, that the Almighty may preſerve your Majeſty in Health and Safety to prolong that Bleſſing to your loyal People which they have long experienced under your Majeſty's benign Government.

Given under our Common Seal, at the City of York, the Nineteenth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, One thouſand eight hundred.

James Robſon, Mayor.

[Preſented by Sir William Milner, from the Corporation of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of your ancient City of Rocheſter, in Common-Council aſſembled, deſire to offer our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulation on the Protection which it has pleaſed Divine Providence to afford to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon from the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt.

While we reflect with Horror on its poſſible Conſequences, we feel redoubled Gratitude to that Power, in whoſe Hands are the Iſſues of Life, for the Preſervation of One whoſe Virtues equally entitle him to the diſtinguiſhed Protection of Heaven, and to the affectionate Veneration of his Subjects.

It is our ardent Wiſh that your Majeſty may ever be thus ſhielded from the Attacks of Fraud or Violence, and may long continue to reign over the Perſons and in the Hearts of your People.

Given under our Common Seal the Twentieth Day of May, One thouſand eight hundred.

[Preſented by Admiral Sir Richard King.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council aſſembled, with Hearts full of Gratitude to the Great Diſpoſer of Events for his late Mercy vouchſafed unto us, beg Leave to approach the Throne with ſincere Expreſſions of our Horror and Indignation at the late moſt daring Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to offer our Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape. Whilſt we regard with Sympathy the Diſtreſs occaſioned to your Royal Conſort and your illuſtrious Family by the horrid Outrage, we have the Satisfaction of knowing that it is your Majeſty's many Virtues which have ſo juſtly endeared your Majeſty to your Family, and to all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Your Subjects, moſt gracious Sovereign, feel a lively Intereſt in every Thing that concerns the Welfare of their King; and ſincerely pray that nothing may ever happen again to diſturb it, but that your Majeſty, bleſſed in the Enjoyment of every Conjugal and Domeſtic Happineſs, may long continue to reign over a free and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal the Nineteenth Day of May, One thouſand eight hundred.

[Preſented by the Earl of Radnor, Recorder of the City, attended by the Honorable W. H. Bouverie and William Huſſey, Eſq; the Repreſentatives in Parliament.]

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry in Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, your Majeſty's dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne to offer our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's late Providential Eſcape from the Hands of an Aſſaſſin. Convinced of the Importance of your Majeſty's invaluable Life, and grateful for the many Bleſſings and Advantages every Claſs of your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy under the mild and equitable Government of theſe Realms we cannot but reflect with Abhorrence upon an Attempt to deprive your Majeſty's People of the beſt of Kings, and Society of its brighteſt Ornament. We conſider it as the ſignal Interpoſition of Providence that the late Attempt upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon ſhould have proved abortive, and with this Impreſſion we offer up our grateful Thanks to the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events, and fervently and ardently pray that He will ſtill continue his gracious Protection to your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Family.

In teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal this Nineteenth Day of May One thouſand eight hundred.

J. Carter, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Gracious Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your ancient and loyal City of Worceſter, in Council aſſembled, take leave humbly to addreſs your Majeſty with Expreſſions of Horror at the late atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to preſent our heartfelt Congratulation at your Majeſty's Eſcape from ſo great a Danger.

Attached by every Sentiment that can endear a Sovereign to his People; and having a juſt Senſe of the great Benefits derived from ſo mild a Government, and a Veneration for the Virtues which adorn your Majeſty's Character, we will make it our earneſt Prayer to Almighty God, that the ſame Interpoſition of Providence manifeſted to your Majeſty on this Occaſion, may long continue to preſerve a Life ſo juſtly dear.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the ſaid City, the Nineteenth Day of May One thouſand eight hundred.

[Preſented by the Earl of Coventry.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Kent, beg leave humbly to approach your Majeſty to expreſs the Abhorrence with which we view the late execrable Attempt upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to offer our joyful Congratulations with all the ſincerity and fervency which we muſt feel on ſo great and ſo providential an Eſcape.

If by exerting ourſelves in Common with the reſt of our fellow Subjects, we could avert any open Attack which might be made upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon or Government, (a Perſon in which we muſt reſpect the Prince and love the Father; a Government under which we enjoy the Bleſſings of internal Order and public Safety) we might with Confidence and heartfelt Certainty congratulate your Majeſty on the Unanimity with which a grateful People, feeling their Intereſt and Wiſhes united in a common Cauſe, would zealouſly preſs forward for the Protection of your Majeſty.

But at a Time when we lament the Inſufficiency of all human Power to guard againſt the dark Intrigues of deſigning and unprincipled Anarchiſts, and the ſudden Attack of a deluded or deſperate Aſſaſſin, we cannot but with the moſt ſincere Satisfaction, and moſt humble Gratitude, obſerve the ſignal Interpoſition of Providence by which a Life ſo juſtly dear to all your Subjects, has been preſerved from the daring Attempt that has been made to ſtrike a Blow of the moſt ſerious Import, and poſſibly with a view to Conſequences the moſt fatal to the Intereſts, and ſubverſive of the Happineſs of the People of this Country.

When we addreſs your Majeſty in Terms of Congratulation on the paſt, we cannot avoid expreſſing how deeply we feel what we owe to your Majeſty, and how completely our Inclination coincides with our Duty in offering our moſt fervent Prayers for the future Safety of that Sovereign whoſe Preſervation to his dutiful and affectionate Subjects, we, must ever acknowledge as a bleſſing of ineſtimable value.

[Preſented by the High Sheriffs, Sir Edward Knatchbull, and Sir William Geary, attended by Lord Romney, Earl Camden, and others.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humbly Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMONGST the Cauſes which (under the Favor of Divine Providence) have ſhielded the Britiſh Nation from thoſe Miſeries which have overwhelmed the greater Part of Europe, the moſt conſpicuouſly eminent has been that mutual Confidence and Affection which has ſubſiſted between your Majeſty and your People :—a Confidence founded, on the Part of your Majeſty, on a juſt Eſtimate of the National Character, and firmly rooted in the Breaſts of your Subjects by their Experience of your Majeſty's parental Solicitude for their Happineſs and Proſperity.

The mild and amiable Virtues which have ſo diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty in all your Relations to Society, render it no leſs Matter of Aſtoniſhment than Regret that there could be found a Hand which could be uplifted againſt your Life; the Motives which could ſtimulate to ſuch an Act, will be ſearched by thoſe Laws which, whilſt they render Protection to the meaneſt Individual, have wiſely made the Preſervation of the Sovereign the Object of their higheſt Solicitude.

Sire, ſurrounded with affectionate Subjects, ever ready to devote their Lives in your Defence, and ſheltered by that Arm which hath hitherto protected your ſacred Perſon againſt all your Enemies, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, indulge the Hope that your Majeſty, the venerable Guardian of our free and glorious Conſtitution, may be ever preſerved from open Violence and ſecret Danger, and long remain a Bleſſing to your Family and an Example to Mankind.

Done at a Public Meeting at Epſom, on Thurſday the twenty-ſecond Day of May, One thouſand eight hundred.

George Griffin Stoneſtreet, Sheriff, on Behalf of the County of Surrey.

[Preſented by the High Sheriff, attended by the Lord Lieutenant, the Right Honorable Lord William Ruſſel, Sir John Frederick, Bart. Sir Joſeph Mawbey, Bart. Members for the County, Sir Robert Baker, Bart. Sir Thomas Turton, Bart. Sir Robert Burnett, Richard Howard, Eſq. Samuel Thornton, Eſq. M. P. Robert Hankey, Eſq. James Brogdon, Eſq. M. P.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorſet, aſſembled at the Common Hall of the ſaid County, beg leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty's Throne, to expreſs our utmoſt Horror and Indignation at the late daring, wicked, and treaſonable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to offer our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulation to your Majeſty and the Country at large, on your Majeſty's moſt providential Eſcape from ſo great Danger. And we do moſt humbly implore the ſame Divine Providence that has already preſerved your Majeſty's Life, to continue to preſerve a Life ſo juſtly and truly valuable to a free and loyal People.

Signed at the Requeſt and in the Name of the Meeting,

Richard Erle Drax Groſvenor,
High Sheriff for the County.

[Preſented by Richard Erle Drax Groſvenor, High Sheriff, attended by the Right Hon. Lord Rivers, Lord Lieut. of the County, Earl of Ilcheſter, and the Members of the County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Congratulations that the Mind can conceive, or the Heart feel, on the late miraculous Eſcape experienced by your Majeſty, from the horrid Attempt of a vile Aſſaſſin againſt a Life dear to every Briton, and rendered more valuable in theſe peculiarly diſtreſſing Times, from its genuine Goodneſs and firm Principles in the Cauſe of Religion, Morality, and ſound Government.

Hoping that your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, is ſtill ſhielded by the Omnipotent Arm of an All-Ruling Providence, we truſt the Shafts of the wicked will fall harmleſs at your Majeſty's Feet.—Yet, as the Continuance of Life to the beſt of Sovereigns is a Bleſſing that every Engliſhman muſt pray for, as a Bleſſing to himſelf, we feel any Attempt on the Life of ſuch a Sovereign as a poiſoned Arrow directed againſt our own Breaſts: therefore we beg leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we would at all Times chearfully riſk our Lives to ſecure that of your Majeſty, whether from the ſecret Attacks of a crafty, dark, Aſſaſſin, or that of a Public, reſtleſs, and implacable Foe.

Signed in Behalf of the Meeting,

SAMUEL WESTON, Mayor.

[Preſented by Sir James Pulteney and Mr. Steward.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

THE Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Marlborough, deſire Permiſſion to offer their ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from a late daring and atrocious Attempt on your Royal Perſon.

While we moſt ſincerely rejoice with all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects on your Majeſty's Eſcape from Violence and Outrage, and while we expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of the Conduct of this unprincipled and deſperate Aſſaſſin, we acknowledge with Gratitude and Reverence the interpoſing Hand of Divine Providence in the Protection of your Royal Perſon; and duly ſenſible of the Happineſs which we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, we humbly pray that the ſame All-directing Power may continue to your loyal Subjects the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government, and to your Majeſty uninterrupted Health and Happineſs through a long Succeſſion of Years.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, this Twenty-ſecond Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

[Sent by the Mayor of Marlborough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

THE Portreeve, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Bedwin, humbly requeſt your Majeſty to accept their moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the daring and audacious Attempt on your Royal Perſon.

At the ſame Time that they expreſs their Deteſtation of the Conduct of the miſerable and abandoned Wretch who could attempt ſo nefarious a Crime, they acknowledge, with pious Reverence and grateful Awe, the interpoſing Hand of Providence; and they truſt that the ſame All-ruling Power which has ſo ſignally preſerved the Life of a Gracious Sovereign will ſtill continue to guard your Majeſty through a long Succeſſion of Years and Happineſs, a Bleſſing to a faithful People, deeply impreſſed with a Love and Veneration for your Majeſty's exalted Virtues.

Given under the Common Seal of our Borough this Twenty-ſecond Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

[Sent by the Portreeve of Great Bedwin.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Town Clerk of your Majeſty's Ancient and Loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windſor, in the County of Berks, humbly requeſt your Majeſty will accept our unfeigned and ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Impreſſed as we are with a lively Senſe of the Benefits derived to all your Majeſty's Subjects under your juſt and mild Government, and to this Town in particular through the Reſidence of your Majeſty and Royal Family among us, we, with all Humility and Gratitude, give Thanks to Almighty God for his Divine Interpoſition to preſerve a Life ſo juſtly dear to us, and fervently pray that your Majeſty may enjoy a long, proſperous, and happy Reign.

Signed and ſealed by Order of Court the Nineteenth of May, One thouſand eight hundred.

Edward Parker, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windſor and its Vicinity, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the Expreſſion, feeble and inadequate as it muſt prove, of the Horror and Deteſtation excited in our Minds by the late atrocious Attempt on your ſacred Perſon, and of our deep and fervent Gratitude to the Almighty for having, as in former Inſtances, protected your Majeſty from the Aſſaſſin's Arm, and again mercifully interpoſed to avert from your grateful people the heavieſt of all Calamities. We contemplate, with affectionate and reſpectful Admiration, the calm and collected Firmneſs evinced by your Majeſty on the Occaſion, the Reſult of your Reliance on that Providence, whoſe Favor it has been the uniform Study of your Life to deſerve; and we truſt the ſame gracious Providence will continue to be your Shield, and extend the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's benignant Reign to the lateſt Period allotted to human Life.

Theſe Sentiments, we are perſuaded, are felt by all our fellow Subjects of every Degree, and in every Part of your Dominions; but, placed as we are within the more immediate Influence of your Majeſty's Virtues, and the daily Obſervation of the Happineſs they diffuſe, we may, without Preſumption, claim a more peculiar Intereſt in the univerſal Joy at your Majeſty's Safety, and a deeper Senſe of what we owe to the Divine Protection on this Occaſion; nor can we conclude this humble Addreſs without expreſſing an Hope, that Her Majeſty the Queen, and the other amiable and illuſtrious Perſons of your auguſt Family, will deign to accept of our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations.

[Preſented to His Majeſty by the Honorable Robert Fulk Greville, one of the Repreſentatives for the Borough of New Windſor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Porteſmouth.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of your ancient Corporation of Porteſmouth, in Common-Hall aſſembled, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty to teſtify our Indignation at the atrocious Attempt lately made againſt your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and to expreſs our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's moſt providential Eſcape. At the ſame Time ſuffer us to aſſure your Majeſty that, ſenſible of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, we moſt fervently offer up our Prayers to Almighty God that he will long continue to preſerve a Life ſo juſtly dear to us, in common with the reſt of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects.

Given under my Hand and Seal in Common-Hall this Nineteenth Day of May, One thouſand eight hundred. W. Goldſon, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, do moſt anxiouſly embrace the earlieſt Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty, and the Nation in general, upon your happy and providential Eſcape from the late horrid and traitorous Attempt upon your ſacred Perſon.

Animated, in the higheſt Degree, with a Senſe of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to your Perſon and Government, and conſcious of the many Bleſſings which we enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, we cannot but expreſs our Aſtoniſhment that any Man ſhould be found ſo completely depraved as to raiſe the Arm of Violence againſt a Life ſo deſervedly dear to every Member of the Empire, and upon which the Security and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms ſo much depend. What Motives could have led to ſuch an Attempt we are at a Loſs to conceive. But we feel ourſelves called upon, in Conjunction with the Reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, to declare in the ſtrongeſt Terms our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſo wicked an Act, and to return our devout Thanks to that Almighty Providence which has ſo graciouſly preſerved your Life on this as well as on former Occaſions.

It is our moſt fervent Wiſh and Prayer, that the ſame good Providence may ſtill watch over and protect your ſacred Perſon, and that your Majeſty may long continue to live and reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free, a happy, and an united People.

Thomas Weſt, Mayor.

[Preſented by Francis Anneſley and John Simeon, Eſqrs. Members for Reading.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and other Members of the Common-Council, of the Town of Liverpool, in Special-Council Aſſembled, intreat your Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our moſt cordial Congratulations on the continued Protection with which it has pleaſed Almighty God to ſhield your ſacred Perſon.

Whilſt we view with indignant Horror the foul and atrocious Attempt which has been lately made to rob Religion of its brighteſt Ornament, and Virtue of its moſt elevated Example, our Hearts glow with pious Gratitute for the ſignal Interpoſition of Providence, in averting a Blow which might have given ſuch a Shock to the Empire as would have endangered its Independence, and ſhaken its Security, but which has happily been ſo directed as to become the Means of calling into Action the generous Enthuſiaſm of a free People, in whoſe Hearts your Majeſty ſits enthroned.

Participating in the general Joy, it is our fervent Prayer, that neither ſecret Conſpiracy, nor open Violence, may ever abridge a Reign diſtinguiſhed by ſuch a ſalutary Exerciſe of Power as to have left no other Impreſſion on the Breaſt of every honeſt Briton than that of Reverence for a Patriot King.

Given under our Common Seal, at Liverpool, the Nineteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand eight hundred.

[Preſented by Mr. Hargrave, Recorder of Liverpool.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The dutiful and loyal Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Antient Town and Borough of Southwark, and Parts adjacent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY ſenſible of the Value and Importance of your Majeſty's Life to the Happineſs of your Subjects and the Proſperity of your Kingdoms, We, your Majeſty's dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Antient Town and Borough of Southwark and Parts adjacent, united in Duty and Affection to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Preſence with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the ſignal Inſtance of the Goodneſs of Divine Providence manifeſted in the Failure of that traitorous Attempt which ſo lately endangered your Majeſty's Royal Perſon. Eager at all Times to teſtify our Loyalty, we feel particularly anxious in this dread Hour, when Treaſon has threatened the greateſt National Calamity, to renew our unfeigned Aſſurances of Fidelity and Attachment to your Perſon and Government, deign then, great Sire, to accept the Tribute neareſt to our Hearts. May it pleaſe the great Diſpoſer of all Events, long, very long, to continue your Majeſty, the happy Inſtrument of preſerving the Civil and Religious Liberties of a free, loyal, and grateful Nation.

Given in the Common-Hall of the ſaid Borough, the Nineteenth Day of May One thouſand eight hundred.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Magiſtrates, and Approved Men, the Clergy, the Officers and Privates of the Volunteer Infantry, and the other Inhabitants of the Town of Guildford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Perſon, and with the moſt profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events, to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from the late daring Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Life.

And we further beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere Hope and Confidence in Almighty God that he will be pleaſed long to preſerve that Life (ſo often reſcued by him from daring Attacks) which is moſt juſtly dear to us, and is a Bleſſing to the Country at large.

Joſeph Hockley, Town Clerk.

[Preſented by Lord Grantley, Recorder, accompanied by Lord Onſlow, High Steward, the Honorable Mr. Onſlow, and the Honorable General Norton, Members of the Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Andrew, in Wells, moſt humbly offer to your Majeſty our heartfelt Congratulations on your Eſcape from the Danger of the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

Deeply ſenſible of our Happineſs, we beſeech the Divine Providence to continue to watch over your Majeſty, and thereby preſerve to a grateful People the ineſtimable Bleſſing of your Majeſty's benign and paternal Government. Geo. W. Lukin, Dean.
